NEDBANK CAPE WINEMAKER'S GUILD (CWG)

The Guild was established in 1982 with the main aim being to innovate, benchmark and share knowledge in winemaking excellence.

CWG today is the most prestigious and successful wine auction. The wines are made by a select group of the top 49 winemakers in South Africa, a by-nomination and invite-only guild.

The limited edition bottles are made exclusively for the specific year's auction, with production rarely exceeding 900 bottles. Most of the wines represent some of the finest examples of their kind in the world, garnering exceptionally high scores every year when reviewed by leading sommeliers and international wine publications.

NEDERBURG AUCTION

Nederburg Auction was founded in 1975, inspired by two leading European wine auctions, namely Kloster Eberbach in Germany and Hospices de Beaune in France, the aim of the auction was to launch South Africa's first Noble Late Harvest, namely Edelkeur.

Today it is recognized as one of the world's five major wine auctions, representing some of the best matured wines available in the Cape, direct from the wineries' library collection following a stringent selection process by a panel predominantly composed of Masters of Wine (MW's).

Under each Auction Wine there will be a rating from our Group Sommelier Miguel Chan (MC), to guide you in your choices, enjoy.

WINE LIST

CHARDONNAY

Ataraxia Under The Gavel 2014

R1900

Kevin Grant honed his winemaking skills at the world famous Hamilton Russell Vineyards as cellar master before establishing Ataraxia in 2004, focusing on hand-crafted, individual and terroir expressive wines. An outstanding non-interventionist single vineyard Chardonnay from a South-facing vineyard on The Skyfields, home to Ataraxia. Fermented in small, tight-grain French oak barriques and aged for 9 months, only 240 bottles were produced of this unshowy style Chardonnay with ripe citrus, tangerine and peach, concentrated yet elegant, spicy touch of oak, glossy, precise pin point freshness.

Delaire Graff Banghoek 2016

R1400

456 bottles produced | 300 bottles were on 2018 CWG Auction. With four Chardonnay's in their offerings, it is clear Delaire is the undisputed benchmark Stellenbosch producer of the variety with great consistency. Ripe style, yellow citrus and stone fruits medley, subtle touch of raisin, sweetness of oak vanillin, complimented by a broad texture, racy and engaging freshness, structured, crunchy green apples, laser like precisions, nutty complexity, touch of honey, persistent length.

Delaire Graff Banhoek 2017

R950

The wine was matured in 60% new French oak barrels for 16 months. The nose is characterised by subtle spicy oak, traces of cedar wood and delicate aromas of rich violets. Red fruit flavours on the palate make for a savoury, firm finish. The wine has fine, integrated tannins with persistent length.

SAUVIGNON BLANC

Bartho Eksteen 2016

R1150

Whole bunch pressed, no settling. Naturally fermented in older 500 litre French oak and matured for 11 months on lees. Bottled with minimum interference. Great accompaniment to crayfish bisque, petit poulet and creamed spinach or alikreukel – three ways (ref. the CWG book "Cellar masters in the Kitchen"). Previous vintages of this wine have enjoyed accolades such as 92 - 94 points from three different continents, 5-star Platter's and have fetched the highest price for Sauvignon Blanc in the history of the CWG Auction – a true benchmark.

WHITE BLEND

Savage Cape Point 2013

R1250

The 2013 White is a blend of 56% Sauvignon Blanc and 44% Semillon, the fruit sourced by Duncan Savage from numerous vineyards around Kaaimansgat for the former and Villiersdorp for the latter. The wine is fermented in 500-liter used oak casks, 25% new, where it ages for 11 months. It has a very refined bouquet with scents of beeswax, honeysuckle, jasmine and touches of praline in the background. The palate is very well balanced with beautifully effervescent orange zest, guava, apricot and honeysuckle notes and a supremely focused, classy finish. Quite simply, this is one of South Africa's finest white wines

Simonsig Mediterraneo 2015

R850

The grapes were hand-picked in small crates and chilled overnight before whole bunch pressing yielded only the free run juice. All three varieties were fermented in seasoned French oak using natural and cultured yeast. Fermented and matured on the primary lees with some battonage for nine months before blending and bottling. Gentle handling and minimal interference preserved the full potential of the delicate flavours. A blend of 66% Roussanne, 28% Grenache Blanc and 6% Verdelho, this opens with pretty scents of tangy orange zest, crisp pear and melon rind, all framed by hints of fresh hay, savory herbs and a chalky minerality. The medium-weight palate is round and soft, yet enlivened by bright acidity that carries through to the finish, alongside notes of clove-spiked orange and toasted oak.

ROUSSANNE

Simonsig Die Kluisenaar 2016

R1300

Simonsig was the first to release a Roussanne on the Guild, back in 2012, always pushing the boundaries, with this confident, innovative Northern Rhone inspired blends of white Hermitage, Roussanne 60% and Marsanne 40%, only 600 bottles were produced. Seductively aromatic with ripe peaches and apricots, spicy vanilla, linear and structured, crunchy freshness with a honeyed mid palate, this outstanding white blends is sheer drinking pleasure in a glass.

De Morgenzon 2017

R1150

Fifth wine at the Friday Auction Tasting for the Cape Winemakers Guild and third still white wine. This is made up of 100% Roussanne by Carl van der Merwe from Stellenbosch. Aged for 12 months on the lees prior to bottling. Only 70 cases produced with 50 being auctioned in 2018. Light greenish yellow in appearance. Rich nose with lovely floral characteristics, followed up by citrus rind, tropical fruits and some spices. Medium acidity (6.5/10) and light plus to medium bodied. A bit buttery in texture with notes of herbs, citrus fruits and some flowers. Long finish. Drink till 2026.
